

CORPORATE LICENCE (SECURITY FIRMS)

INFORMATION & REQUIREMENTS

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

An application for a Licence must be lodged in person at the nearest Police Station, or with Police on a Rural Patrol. Applications should not be mailed in directly to the Firearms Policy and Records Unit.

There is no renewal system in the NT - each and every application is a fresh application under the Act, and all supporting documentation must be provided each occasion.

This evidence must include the following:

- Details of your Private Security Licence (Firm) issued by the Private Security Licensing Authority,
- Type of services you provide that require the carriage of firearms (ie): static guards (for what purposes), money escorts (type and frequency), alarm response (to what type of premises), other (please detail),
- To whom you provide these services (without disclosing commercial details of any contractual arrangements) – must be current contracts (new or old); you can not get a security firearm licence in the hope of attracting business,
- Details of any special conditions that you feel should be considered for licensing purposes,
- Type of uniforms that your employees will wear and whether you provide any formal identification for them to wear or carry (include pictures – front and side on),
- Details of any internal company policies to which employees must comply with in respect to firearms use or carriage (your rules of engagement),
- Details of where and how your firearms are stored, and what procedures you have in place to record the issuing of firearms to your employees.
