Prohibited Persons

(Including persons under the age of 18 years old)

A 'prohibited person' under NT Firearms Act 1997 cannot play paintball nor can they use a firearm in the NT, including at a firearm club open day shoot.

"prohibited person" means a person who:

- (a) is prohibited from applying for any firearm or weapon licence under this Act or a law of a State or another Territory; or
- (b) is not entitled to be granted any licence under this Act, for a reason other than that the person is not a resident, or about to become a resident, of the Territory.

Persons who are prohibited from applying for a licence or are not entitled to be granted a licence under the Firearms Act include those who have been:

- subject of a Domestic Violence Order in the last five years (In the Northern Territory the five year period applies from when the Order expires, not when it came into force),
- currently subject to an order to 'keep the peace' issued by a court,
- been found guilty of an offence against the NT Firearms Act 1997 or the NT Weapons Control Act 2001 in the last two years (A finding of guilt includes matters where the offence was proved and no conviction recorded),
- been found guilty of an Offence of Violence in the last 5 years (Carefully read the list of Offences of Violence to see if this applies to you. A finding of guilt includes matters where the offence was proved and no conviction recorded),
- been found guilty of a Disqualifying Offence in the last 10 years (Carefully read the list of Disqualifying Offences to see if this applies to you. A finding of guilt includes matters where the offence was proved and no conviction recorded),
- currently subject to a court order that you cannot hold or apply for a firearm licence, or
- currently under a Notice of Suspension, Refusal or Revocation issued under the NT Firearms Act 1997.

If any of the above applies to you, or you think it may apply to you, DO NOT complete the 'Prohibited Person' declaration. You may not be eligible to play paintball nor handle or shoot a firearm under any circumstance.

If you are in doubt as to your circumstances contact the Firearms Policy and Recording Unit (FPRU) at Palmerston to clarify your position.

You can contact the FPRU on 8922 3543 between 8am and 11am during normal workdays Monday to Friday or by emailing FPRU using firearmsregistry@pfes.nt.gov.au
