

What does it mean to be a prohibited person?

The trial only allows you to purchase, possess, carry or use OC spray if you are not a prohibited person. A prohibited person if found to be possessing, carrying or using OC spray, will be committing an offence and liable to prosecution.

Who is a prohibited person?

A prohibited person is a person who has committed certain offences or has a relevant police or court order against them. At the time of purchase, you will be asked to complete a Buyer Declaration confirming that you are not a prohibited person. The relevant conditions that make you a prohibited person are listed below.

IMPORTANT: It is your responsibility to ensure that the declaration you provide at the time of purchase is true and accurate. It is an offence to make a declaration that is false in any material particular. You may be liable to imprisonment for three (3) years pursuant to section 119 of the Criminal Code Act 1983. If you are unsure whether any offence or condition makes you prohibited, do not make a declaration, and seek legal advice first.

You are a prohibited person if:

- You are not 18 years of age (or older); or
- You have been found guilty of an offence holding a maximum penalty of two (2) or more years imprisonment unless:
  - If you were sentenced to imprisonment - at least five (5) years have passed since you were released or since you were found guilty (whichever happened later); or
  - If you were not sentenced to imprisonment - at least two (2) years have passed since you were found guilty; or
- You are a reportable offender as defined in section 6 of the Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Registration) Act 2004 (NT); or
- You have a final or interim domestic violence order (DVO) currently in force against you, or a final DVO was in force within the last five (5) years; or
- You have a personal violence restraining order or an interim personal violence restraining order is in force against you; or
- You are subject to an order, made in the NT or elsewhere, to keep the peace; or

You have not breached a condition of the Exemptions: OC Spray, Weapons Control Act 2001 s12(7) (available on the OC Spray website).

In addition, you are a prohibited person if:

- You have been found guilty of a disqualifying offence as defined in section 3(1) of the Firearms Act 1997 within the last ten (10) years. Read the list of disqualifying offences on the following pages.
