General instructions

Complete this form if you are applying for NT firearms 'Employee Licence' or 'Employee Nominee Licence' or 'Employee Representative Licence'.

Application for a NT firearms 'Licence' must be lodged in person at a NT Police station.

Applications should not be mailed or emailed directly to the Firearms Policy and Recording Unit (FPRU).

All NT firearms licence applications within the greater Darwin and Palmerston area (Darwin, Casuarina, Palmerston, and rural areas) are to be lodged at the Palmerston Police Station during business hours (8am–4pm Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays). All applications for a licence outside this area can be lodged at any NT Police station.

There is no renewal system in the NT

Each and every application is a new application under the NT Firearms Act 1997 (the Act), and all supporting documentation must be provided on each occasion. All dealer nominees must reapply with the dealership.

Any application for a re-issue of expiring licence should be submitted at least 6 weeks prior to the licence expiration date. You must provide 100 points of identification along with this application.

Proof of NT residency

To be eligible for a NT firearms licence, you must be a permanent resident of the NT and provide proof of residency, evidenced by a current NT drivers licence or proof of NT residency, like utilities bill(s) (no more than three months) or electoral enrolment or letter from employer (no more than three months) with current residential address displayed.

A new photograph will be taken by police each time you lodge an application for a licence.

Prior to completing your application, please ensure you have read through the application form, information and requirements. Please refer to the information listed under relevant sections for assistance in completing the application form.

FPRU will undertake a criminal history check (NT and nationally) for every application. Ensure you answer all four questions in the criminal and personal history declaration in full and disclose all history. It is an offence punishable by imprisonment to provide false information in connection with an application under the Act.

See NT Police website <https://pfes.nt.gov.au/police/firearmsweapons> for more information.

You must complete all the sections (write N/A where not applicable) using black or blue pen only and provide all supporting documentation. Applicable licence fee must be paid on application. Dealer nominee is free with the dealership.

If you allow your Shooter's Licence to expire without having submitting an application for re-issue, then you will also be required to resit the Shooter's Licence examination.

For clarification or enquiries, please contact Firearms Policy and Recording Unit (FPRU) on (08) 8922 3543 between 8am and 11am Monday to Friday (excluding public holidays) or email firearmsregistry@pfes.nt.gov.au

INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED

First time applicants

It is a requirement that you must sit and pass the firearms safety examination. If you have difficulty reading and/or writing, an oral examination can be organised. Please inform the receiving officer. Read the 'National Firearms Safety Code' booklet (before you sit the firearms safety examination which is part of the requirement for a firearms licence). You must get 100% correct on the firearms safety examination – if 100% is not achieved, your application will not be accepted. You will be advised by staff when re-examination can occur.

You are not required to take the safety exam, if you are applying for a 'Sports Shooter's Permit' or if you have a current interstate firearms licence or NT firearms 'Safety Training Certificate'.

All applicants

Must provide 100 point identification, evidence of NT residency, documentation supporting your 'Genuine Reason' (Recreational Shooting and/or Hunting or Sports Shooting - 'Permission to shoot' and documentation supporting storage requirements (Refer to instructions in respective sections).

Interstate transfer applicants

If you are transferring from another State or Territory and your licence is current, you do not have to undertake the NT police firearms safety examination. As per the mutual recognition arrangements between the States and Territories, Interstate qualification or training certificates are not recognised in the NT, only current interstate firearm licence is recognised.

You must bring your current interstate licence and registered firearm list (or firearm registration certificates) to the Police Station when you lodge your application. You will also need to present your 'currently registered firearms' and any others you hold for inspection to confirm the firearm's description (make, model, action type, capacity and calibre) and serial numbers before the firearms will be registered in the Northern Territory. If they are not presented, you must account for each one - whereabouts of the firearm, how and where is it stored, reason why it is not presented for inspection and registration.

If you are not registering all the currently registered firearms on your Interstate licence in the NT, you should provide a 'Statutory Declaration' explaining the variation and/or reasons.

You should transfer your firearms to the NT preferably through a dealer. If you are transferring your firearms through a dealer, the firearms do not need to be presented at an NT Police Station. You should complete and submit 'Purchase or Transfer Permit' - PF484 for each firearm.

Waiting periods for licence

For new applicants (including 'Club Junior Licence' applicants), who have not previously held a firearms licence, there is a mandatory 28 day cooling off period as per Section 10 (2) of the NT Firearms Act 1997. No waiting period applies for a re-issue of Shooter's Licence or for Sports Shooter's Licence.

The waiting period applies for current interstate licence holders transferring to the NT (in accordance with the National Firearms Agreement). These licence holders will operate on their interstate licence during this waiting period.

Section 9: Information disclosure

All applicants including first time applicants must answer all questions.

The questions are asking about any criminal history, mental health history and Domestic, Personal or Apprehended Violence Orders (DVO, FVO or AVO) in which you were the defendant. You must answer all questions truthfully.

National checks will be undertaken during the adjudication process and if you are found to have answered the questions untruthfully your licence will be refused and you may face criminal charges.

You must disclose all DVOs/PVOs/AVOs, even if they have been withdrawn or are no longer in force.

You must disclose all court outcomes where there has been a finding of guilt, even where no conviction was recorded.

If you have been 'fined' as a result of a court appearance, this must be disclosed.

If you are unsure about any of these questions select 'Yes'.

Police will do a full criminal history check (NT and nationally) for every application.

Ensure you answer the criminal history declaration in full and disclose all history including youth offences and all adult charges including spent convictions.
