INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED

First time applicants

It is a requirement that you must sit and pass the firearms safety examination. If you have difficulty reading and/or writing, an oral examination can be organised. Please inform the receiving officer. Read the 'National Firearms Safety Code' booklet (before you sit the firearms safety examination which is part of the requirement for a firearms licence). You must get 100% correct on the firearms safety examination – if 100% is not achieved, your application will not be accepted. You will be advised by staff when re-examination can occur.

You are not required to take the safety exam, if you are applying for a 'Sports Shooter's Permit' or if you have a current interstate firearms licence or NT firearms 'Safety Training Certificate'.

All applicants

Interstate transfer applicants

As per the mutual recognition arrangements between the States and Territories, Interstate qualification or training certificates are not recognised in the NT, only current interstate firearm licence is recognised.

You must bring your current interstate licence and registered firearm list (or firearm registration certificates) to the Police Station when you lodge your application. You will also need to present your 'currently registered firearms' and any others you hold for inspection to confirm the firearm's description (make, model, action type, capacity and calibre) and serial numbers before the firearms will be registered in the Northern Territory. If they are not presented, you must account for each one - whereabouts of the firearm, how and where is it stored, reason why it is not presented for inspection and registration.

If you are not registering all the currently registered firearms on your Interstate licence in the NT, you should provide a 'Statutory Declaration' explaining the variation and/or reasons.

You should transfer your firearms to the NT preferably through a dealer. If you are transferring your firearms through a dealer, the firearms do not need to be presented at an NT Police Station. You should complete and submit 'Purchase or Transfer Permit' - PF484 for each firearm.

Waiting periods for licence

For new applicants (including 'Club Junior Licence' applicants), who have not previously held a firearms licence, there is a mandatory 28 day cooling off period as per Section 10 (2) of the NT Firearms Act 1997. No waiting period applies for a re-issue of Shooter's Licence or for Sports Shooter's Licence.
