

Read the information sheet before completing your application.

Where to lodge your application

Application for a NT firearms Licence must be lodged in person at a NT Police station. An application cannot be mailed or emailed to the Firearms Policy and Recording Unit (FPRU).

All NT firearms licence applications within the greater Darwin and Palmerston area (Darwin, Casuarina, Palmerston, and rural areas) are to be lodged at the Palmerston Police Station during business hours (8am–5.00pm Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays). All applications for a licence outside this area can be lodged at any NT Police station.

There is no renewal system in the NT

Every application is a new application under the NT Firearms Act 1997 (the Act), and all supporting documentation must be provided on each occasion.

Any application for a re-issue of an expiring licence should be submitted at least 6 weeks prior to the licence expiration date.

General information

- a signed letter must be accompanied with the application outlining:
 - reason to possess an
 - details of the firearm (or if more than one detail how they are a matched pair or set)
 - significant historical or sentimental lineage to the applicant or the applicant's family;
 - category
 - type
 - period
 - style
- evidence the firearm(s) has been bequeathed to the applicant
- applicants are required to complete a Firearms Training and Safety Course (FTSC). Approved training providers can be found at FTSC providers
- firearm/s specified in the licence must be
 - permanently incapable of being fired (a permanent deactivation certificate must be produced by a licenced armourer)
- there is no fee for this licence and approved for the life of the licence holder
- all sections of the application must be completed
- provide all supporting documentation at the time of submission
- incomplete applications will not be accepted
- payment must be made at the time the application is submitted.

Proof of NT residency

To be eligible for a NT firearms heirloom licence, you must

- be a permanent resident of the NT; and
- provide proof of residency:
 - current NT driver licence
 - utility bill (no more than three months)
 - electoral enrolment with current residential address displayed.

Firearms categories

The licence category you are applying for is dependent on the type of firearm that you own, propose to acquire or use. Select the firearms category relevant to your 'Genuine Reason' and/or need. More information on firearm categories can be found at Firearms Categories.

Training

It is a requirement that you must complete a Firearm Training and Safety course (FTSC) and provide a copy of your certificate. Approved training providers can be found at FTSC providers.

Storage and safekeeping of firearms

The applicants premises must comply with the storage and safe keeping required as specified for an Antique firearms collector licence under the NT Firearm Regulations Act 1997. Complete a Permission to inspect premises form (PF482) and attach to the application.

Refer to NT Firearms Regulations 1997 Part 3, Section 25AA for further information on storage of antique firearms.

Information disclosure

All applicants must answer all questions about any criminal history, mental health history and domestic violence in which you were involved.

- you must answer all questions truthfully
- you must disclose all DVOs/PVOs/AVOs, even if they have been withdrawn or are no longer in force
- you must disclose all court outcomes where there has been a finding of guilt, even where no conviction was recorded
- if you have been 'fined' as a result of a court appearance, this must be disclosed
- disclose all history including youth offences and all adult charges including spent convictions.

If you are unsure about any of these questions select 'Yes'. National checks will be undertaken during the adjudication process and if you are found to have answered the questions untruthfully your application will be refused and you may face criminal charges.

How long it may take to process your licence

It may take up to 4 to 6 weeks for your application to be processed. To avoid delays:

- ensure your application is complete
- confirm all information is correct
- check all required supporting documents are provided

What you need to bring

- must provide 100 point proof of identity
- evidence of NT residency
- copy of current FTSC certificate
- signed letter outlining the reason for wanting the antique collectors licence which outlines the firearm significant historical or sentimental lineage to the application or the applicants family
- evidence of firearms have been certified as incapable of being fired
- evidence that the firearms has been bequeath to the applicant
- documents relating to Information disclosure section
- storage and safekeeping form.

Need an Interpreter service?

You can use an interpreter service if you are having difficulty understanding these questions. You can contact the 'Interpreting and Translating Service NT' by phoning: (08) 8999 8506 or 1800 676 254

Need assistance with your application?

For clarification or enquiries, please contact Firearms Policy and Recording Unit (FPRU) on (08) 8922 3543 between 8 am and 11am Monday to Friday excluding public holidays or email firearmsregistry@pfes.nt.gov.au